Dead Man Walking

Art and Religion Take On the Death Penalty

Houston's Religious Leaders Convene to Open Public Discourse on the Death Penalty

Religious leaders Dialogue on the Death Penalty at the Hobby Center's Zilkha Hall on January 18 at 7:30 pm is an unprecedented event. Moderated by Sr. Helen Prejean, author of the book Dead Man Walking, and Vicki Schieber of Murder Victims' Families for Human Rights, the evening brings together seven of Houston's religious leaders to explore perspectives on the death penalty in the city with the highest death penalty rate in the nation. The program will include an aria accompanied by Dead Man Walking Opera composer Jake Heggie. According to the Rt. Rev. C. Andrew Doyle, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas, "We hope that this is a seminal event for discussions surrounding the death penalty. It is a topic that should be discussed in the context of our lives of faith in order for healing and reconciliation to take root."

The event is free, space is limited, so please RSVP to 512-441-1808 or info@tcadp.org.
