Please join us as we present the Frederick Douglass Human Rights Award to
ANTHONY AMSTERDAM
for his lifetime commitment to human rights.

The Southern Center for Human Rights presents the annual Frederick Douglass Human Rights Award to those who have demonstrated brilliance and tenacity in the defense of human rights, and in doing so, provide inspiration and leadership to others in the legal field. All proceeds from the Awards Dinner benefit the work of the Southern Center for Human Rights.

The Southern Center for Human Rights is a non-profit law firm that challenges unconstitutional and illegal criminal justice practices in the southern states that target the poor, people of color, and marginalized groups; represents people facing the death penalty who would otherwise have no representation; and seeks to transform the justice system into one that is fair, transparent, humane, and effective.
